INTRODUCTION.

These Standing Orders are based on the National Association of Local Council (NALC) model standing orders contained in "Local Councils Explained" by Meera Tharmarajah (© 2013 NALC). These Standing Orders which reference new legislation introduced after 2013, when the last model Standing Orders were published.

HOW TO USE STANDING ORDERS.

Standing Orders (SO) are the written rules of a local Council. SO are essential to regulate the proceedings of a meeting. A Council may also use SO to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. The SO of a Council are not the same as the policies of a Council, but SO may refer to them.

Local Councils operate within a wide statutory framework. The NALC model SO incorporate and reference many statutory requirements to which Councils are subject. It is not possible for the SO to contain or reference all the statutory or legal requirements which apply to local Councils. For example, it is not practical for SO to document all obligations under data protection legislation. The statutory requirements to which a Council is subject apply whether or not they are incorporated in a Council's SO.

The SO do not include Financial Regulations. The Financial Regulations are the rules to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of a local Council. The Financial Regulations, as opposed to the SO of a Council, include most of the requirements relevant to the Council's Responsible Financial Officer (RFO).

1 RULES OF DEBATE AT MEETINGS.

- a Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the Chair of the meeting.
- b A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the Chair of the meeting as withdrawn.

- e An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- f If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion (as amended) becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the Chair of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the Chair.
- h A Councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
